

ETSC Update – March 2008

News from the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo

A picture is worth a thousand words... Enjoy our March update... ETSC news in pictures!

Dr. Darren Kennedy, who recently received his Ph.D. in Theology from Edinburgh in Scotland, shares the “news” that he has been appointed to chair ETSC’s library committee.

ETSC B.Th. students enjoy some social time together before lunch.

B.Th. student Rami Michael (left) from Iraq translates for M.A.T.S. student Rev. Daniel Amum (right) from Sudan in the chapel worship service.

ETSC’s IT coordinator Armia Makram offers a computer class to students.

B. Th. Student David Magdy leads worship at the “Community Center” in Hurghada, where he serves on the weekends.

Dr. Allan Bruce Henderson and his wife Karen (center right) are serving at ETSC this month to teach a Steven Ministry course to our Lay Pastor Trainees.

Sid Jansma (second from left), board member of Calvin Seminary in Grand Rapids, MI, meets with ETSC board and faculty members to discuss our growing partnership.

Mrs. Rena Partridge (center), granddaughter of early Scottish missionary Dr. John Hogg and her granddaughter Hannah visited in February from England to celebrate Dr. Hogg’s legacy at ETSC.

We thank God for all the blessings poured out upon our community in the last month. We welcome your prayers and support! Please contact us at etsc@etsc.org for more information about our activities, degree programs, and how to partner with us as we train pastors and leaders in Egypt.